Overview

What is a modular refinery?

Our commitment to quality and safety is unparalleled in the industry. A modular refinery is a prefabricated processing plant designed to distill crude oil into straight run gasoline, kerosene, diesel, fuel oil, and off-gas using a crude distillation unit (CDU).

What are modular crude oil refineries?

Modular crude oil refineries are prefabricated processing plants designed to distill crude oil into a range of petroleum products, including naphtha, kerosene, diesel, residual fuel oil, and off-gas.

What is a feasibility study of energy integration in grid-connected oil and gas industries?

Feasibility study of energy integration in grid-connected oil and gas industries. Considering a hybrid model of renewable energies including solar, wind, and biomass alongside a combined cycle gas power plant and grid. Examining the impact of reduced grid capacity to purchase energy from grid. Analyzing sensitivity to economic instabilities.

Why should oil refinery plants use hybrid energy systems?

This significantly enhances the economic viability and environmental sustainability of the oil refinery plant, contributing valuable insights into the optimal configuration of hybrid energy systems for large-scale industrial applications and addressing the challenges of energy security, cost-effectiveness, and environmental impact. 1. Introduction
