Overview

How is export regulated in Ghana?

In Ghana this process is largely regulated by the Export and Import Act, 1995 (Act 503), which outlines the conditions and procedures for exporting goods. Furthermore, the Ghana Export Promotion Authority (GEPA) has been established to develop and promote Ghanaian exports.

How to export goods from Ghana?

Exporting goods from Ghana involves adhering to a set of customs procedures designed to ensure compliance with national and international regulations. Traders must understand these processes to facilitate smooth export operations. One of the critical aspects of the export procedure is the requirement for specific documentation.

How do I export a non-traditional product in Ghana?

For non-traditional export goods, the exporter must obtain, complete, and submit the Ghana Export Form to the Commissioner of Customs. This form details the type, quantity, and value of the goods being shipped. Customs uses this information to regulate exports and to compile important statistics on the country's foreign trade.

How do I file a customs declaration in Ghana?

Get a Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) from the Ghana Revenue Authority or a GhanaCard PIN. Obtain a Bank of Ghana Exchange Control Form A2 from your bankers. Complete the Customs Declaration Form electronically and submit to Customs via the Integrated Customs Management System (ICUMS).
