

Grid-side energy storage power station in New York USA

Overview

The 20 MW Northern New York Energy Storage project installed and operated by the New York Power Authority connects into the state's electric grid in Chateaugay, NY. What is NYCIDA's largest battery energy storage project?

NYCIDA closed its largest battery energy storage project to date, the East River Energy Storage Project, located on an industrial site on the East River in Astoria, Queens. When built, the facility will be able to hold up to 100 megawatts (MW) and power over tens of thousands of households.

How many MW can a New York battery storage facility hold?

When built, the facility will be able to hold up to 100 megawatts (MW) and power over tens of thousands of households. Once completed, the project will be amongst the largest battery storage installations in New York State.

How will a 100MW battery energy storage system work?

The facility will serve as a large-scale battery energy storage system capable of charging from, and discharging into, the New York power grid. When fully functional, the 100MW battery energy storage project will be able to discharge electricity to the grid particularly during peak demand.

Are battery energy storage systems regulated in New York City?

Battery energy storage systems in New York City are rigorously regulated, with oversight from the safety industry, federal, state, and local authorities. All code, location, spacing, and other local requirements must be met.
