

Lithium-ion battery BMS

Overview

What is a lithium-ion battery management system (BMS)?

The battery management system (BMS) is an intricate electronic set-up designed to oversee and regulate rechargeable batteries, specifically lithium-ion batteries.

Why do lithium batteries need a BMS?

The BMS prevents your lithium battery's voltage from going too high (causing overheating and gas release) or too low (leading to permanent damage). Damage occurs if you overcharge (cell voltage gets too high) or over-discharge (cell voltage gets too low) a lithium-ion battery cell. Overcharging occurs when recharging exceeds a battery's safe range.

What is a BMS for a 12V lithium-ion battery?

A BMS for a 12V lithium-ion battery typically includes several essential features designed to protect and optimize the battery's performance: Voltage Regulation: This ensures each cell within the battery pack maintains the correct voltage, preventing overcharging and undercharging, which are common causes of battery failure.

How does BMS technology work with battery management systems?

In this piece, we'll learn about how BMS technology works with vehicle systems like thermal management and charging infrastructure. On top of that, we'll get into how predictive analytics and machine learning reshape the scene of battery management systems. These advances allow more proactive monitoring of battery health and performance.
