Is Norway the 'battery of Europe'?

Image: Ingrid Capacity. While Norway once aimed to be the 'battery of Europe' it has since been overtaken other Nordic countries Sweden and Finland for BESS deployments. Research firm LCP Delta's Jon Ferris explores the region's energy storage market dynamics in this long-form article.

Why should we invest in EV battery recycling in Norway?

Our BESS holds immense potential for contributing to Norway's burgeoning clean energy landscape. Upon installation at the EV battery recycling facility, Hydrovolt, it will play a pivotal role in optimizing energy utilization and unlocking new revenue streams.

Why should you invest in a Bess project in Norway?

The delivery process unfolded seamlessly, thanks to meticulous planning and the cooperation of all involved parties. Norway's efficiency and commitment to environmental stewardship shone through, enhancing the overall experience. Our BESS holds immense potential for contributing to Norway's burgeoning clean energy landscape.

Does Norway have a battery market?

Since then, nearly 3GW of interconnector capacity has been installed to connect the GB and German markets to Norway's extensive hydro capacity. However, across Europe battery capacity exceeds 20 GW, with GB, Germany and Italy leading this growth in capacity. Norway's battery market remains poorly developed, even compared to its neighbours.
