Overview

Is Africa a good place to install solar panels?

While Europe and Asia lead in solar deployment through the installation of more solar panels, Africa has better natural conditions for solar power. The continent enjoys some of the world's highest solar irradiation levels, averaging 5–7 kWh/m²/day, ideal for solar photovoltaic (PV) systems.

Where are solar panels coming from in Africa?

In North Africa, countries like Algeria and Egypt are building massive utility-scale solar power plants that require large numbers of panels. But in Sub-Saharan Africa, the panels are being imported by more rural communities in places that traditionally haven't been connected to the grid at all.

Does Africa still have solar power?

While the spread of solar energy across Africa is encouraging, a significant concentration of capacity persists. In 2024, 78 per cent of all new installations were concentrated in just two countries — South Africa and Egypt.

How much solar power does South Africa have?

However, sub-Saharan African countries excluding South Africa only have an accumulated capacity of 74 MWp rooftop solar PV as of 2019 . Initiatives such as the Southern African Power Pool (SAPP) has developed a coalition of nine sub-Saharan countries to increase their renewable energy contributions and reduce their emissions .
